Commitment

Our Program and its Commitment!

The Suzuki philosophy believes in a triangle relationship between students, teacher and parents. In order for the child to flourish, parents must have a huge role in the child's learning development. This means we are not a drop of program. Parents must attend classes with the children.

All candidates must be able to commit to the lesson times at STES classroom. This include both private and group lessons

All classes unless stated otherwise by your personal teacher will be at STES. We are located at 7102 14 Ave SW, Calgary, AB T3H 4G7

Violin	Group Class Mondays at 5:30 pm Private Class: To Be Arranged by Instructor
Cello	Group Class Mondays at 6:00 pm Private Class: To Be Arranged by Instructor
Guitar	Group Class Mondays at 5:30 pm Private Class: To Be Arranged by Instructor
Piano	Group Class Last Week of the Month, To be determine by teacher Private Class: To Be Arranged by Instructor

All finalist must be willing to come to observation classes for their respective program before being awarded the scholarship.
